HISTORY OF
ST. SIMON THE CYRENIAN EPISCOPAL CHURCH
85th ANNIVERSARY

On June 24, 1894, Rev. Henry L. Phillips, D.D., Rector of the Church of the Crucifixion started St. Augustine Mission (now St. Simon's Church). There were just a few members and only one Sunday School Scholar.

In September 1897 the Mission was moved to its present location, 22nd and Reed Streets. The cost of the ground was $7,500. The Chapel itself cost $2,700. At this time the name changed to St. Simon The Cyrenian P.E. Church.

Subsequent to a meeting in October 1902, the Southwestern Convocation of the Protestant Episcopal Church placed the Chapel in the care of the Church of the Holy Apostles with the Rev. Richard R. Thomas as minister in charge, assisted by Rev. Thomas G. Brown. On May 13, 1903 plans were completed for the erection of a Parish building. This building was opened on February 18, 1906.

A very useful and helpful feature of the Chapel's work was their daily Kindergarten School, started by Mrs. F. Wilson and assisted by Mrs. Mary Osborn and Mrs. Ida B. Frazier.

The First Rector of the Church of St. Simon The Cyrenian was the Rev. John R. Logan, Sr., D.D., formerly Priest in charge of St. Phillip's Church in Charleston, West Virginia. On May 19, 1909 he began his duties as Vicar of the Chapel of St. Simon The Cyrenian. On August 30, 1913, ground was broken for a new church building.

On Sunday, April 19, 1914 the cornerstone of the new church structure was laid by Rt. Rev. Phillip M. Rhinelander, dedicated October 18, 1914 and consecrated Wednesday, November 3, 1920. Rev. John R. Logan, Sr., served as Rector of St. Simon The Cyrenian from May 19, 1909 until December 31, 1956.

Rev. John R. Logan, the present Rector, succeeded his father as of January 1, 1957 and has faithfully and successfully served to the present. The Church has grown in membership and service, to be one of the largest congregations in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

To the People of God,
The Church of St. Simon the Cyrenian
22nd and Reed Streets
Philadelphia, Pa. 19146

Dear Friends in Christ:

When God the Father created man in His own image, He gave human beings the capacity to remember. This is one of our God-given abilities — the ability to recall events in the past and to rehearse or repeat the story of past events so that we can learn from and be enlightened by these past experiences.

This year, 1979, we are thankfully celebrating the 85th anniversary of the Church of St. Simon the Cyrenian and the 40th anniversary of the priestly ministry of the Reverend John Richard Logan, Jr. We happily recall the 85 year history of this congregation of God's people and the 40 year faithful ministry of its current rector.

God has given us the capacity to remember so that we can tell and live the glorious story of the birth, the life, and the death of Jesus Christ. And that is exactly what this congregation has done for 85 years, and this is the story that the Reverend John Richard Logan, Jr. has told by his life of witness and service in this congregation for 40 years as priest and pastor. We thank and praise God for these anniversaries.

Faithfully,

THE RT. REV. LYMAN C. OGILBY
Bishop of Pennsylvania

LCO/jw

IN NOMINE PATRIS ET FILII ET SPIRITUS SANTI

THE SOUTHWARK DEANERY

wishes to congratulate the Church of

SAINT SIMON THE CYRENIAN

on the eighty-fifth anniversary of its founding. St. Simon's has distinguished itself as a leading parish in the Southwark Deanery of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. It has contributed greatly to the life and stability of the community in which it stands and commands the gratitude and respect of all who have been associated with it throughout its history.

In addition, we of the Southwark Deanery now congratulate on the fortieth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood and for his outstanding service as Rector of St. Simon the Cyrenian during the most recent quarter of the parish's life. Father Logan has also contributed much of his time and energy in serving programs and committees of the Diocese, the Deanery, and the Community. We wish him many years of continued health and service in Christ's Kingdom.

THE REVEREND JOHN R. LOGAN, JR.
